

Tasi Peddicord Regional Sales and Customer Service Manager Matson Navigation

Tasi Peddicord is the Regional Sales and Customer Service Manager for Matson Navigation. She is responsible for the Matson professionals who support clients on Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of Palau, and Republic of the Marshall Islands. During her short time at Matson Navigation, she revamped the corporate sales strategy to involve greater individual accountability, teamwork, and customer service excellence. Prior to her role at Matson, she was Commercial Sales with IP&E Guam (formerly Shell North Pacific Islands) for nearly a decade, where she focused her efforts in the following regional industries: Aviation, Government, Commercial, and Marine businesses.

Tasi holds a Master's in Business Administration from the University of Maryland (2013) and a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology with a Minor in Sociology from the University of Guam (2003). She is a 1999 graduate of Harvest Christian Academy. Her involvements outside of the Guam Women's Chamber of Commerce are numerous. She has participated as an advisor for Junior Achievement and represented Shell and IP&E at various Relay for Life activities. She sat on the Board of Directors of the Guam Girl Scouts and the National Association of Women in Construction. Additionally, she participates in general membership activities for the Guam Contractors Association, Guam Young Professionals, and the Guam Chamber of Commerce. Tasi has two daughters – Lily and Violet – and resides in the village of Chalan Pago. With her free time, she enjoys travel and time with her girls.

The Guam Women's Chamber is a platform for women to support women in all stages of their careers and lives. As a mother of two girls, Tasi's goal is to create a future where they are valued for their ambition and abilities.

Life Quote: "My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive and to do so with some passion, compassion, some humor, and some style." -Maya Angelou
